

Social and Other Interests of Women

SOCIETY

Mrs. D. M. Coen, Golden av., was hostess Friday afternoon at a charming tea honoring her house guest, Miss Margaret Steele of Chillicothe, O. Guests numbering 35 were received during the afternoon. Tea was served in the dining room, where the table was prettily appointed in yellow with a centerpiece of Aaron Ward roses gracefully arranged in a crystal basket. Yellow shaded candles were used to complete the effect. Mrs. Malcolm Clark of Wheatfield, Ind., sister of Mrs. Coen, poured. Mrs. Fred Meifeld of Frankfort, Ind., was another out of town guest.

Members of the Rambler club to the number of 32 successfully surprised Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Korne, N. Portage, Friday night. A delicious oyster supper was served in the evening spent with cards. The guests made the trip in several autos.

The Friday Afternoon Sewing circle was entertained Friday afternoon with Mrs. John Ott, S. Carroll st. Fifteen members and five visitors were present. A pastry exchange which was conducted during the afternoon netted a sum of $12.25. Choice refreshments were served during a social hour. The circle will meet Dec. 13 with Mrs. Peter Dubail, 116 W. Jefferson Blvd.

Mrs. George Secor, 207 W. Marion st., was hostess Friday afternoon to members of the Eureka club to the number of 14 with one guest. The afternoon was devoted to fancy work and a delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Secor late in the afternoon. Mrs. Vina Gillman, 761 Vista av., will entertain the club Dec. 17.

The regular informal dancing party of the C. A. C. was held Friday night at the club rooms with the usual attendance. Lessons in the new steps were conducted preceding the dance by Mr. Coker.

The Montauk Sewing circle was entertained pleasantly Friday afternoon by Mrs. John Elkins, N. Notre Dame av. A brief business meeting was followed by sewing with which the afternoon was spent. The circle is making aprons and other articles in preparation for the bazaar which it will give soon. Refreshments were served during a social hour which concluded the afternoon. Mrs. Herman Martin, 712 Carroll st., will entertain the circle Dec. 18.

Church Affairs

Miss Isabelle Kennedy's Sunday school class of the First M. E. church was entertained Friday evening at the church parlors by Mrs. Seth Best, Miss Leona Appleby, Mrs. George Meyer and Mrs. S. Bowman. The evening was spent with games and music and a light supper was served at its close.

Miss Nadine Stansbury, 517 W. Marion st., was hostess to the King's Heralds of the First M. E. church Friday afternoon. Following the regular business meeting the afternoon was spent socially, violin solos being furnished by Miss Ivah Bayman, accompanied on the piano by Miss Margery Blake. Refreshments were served. The class will meet with Miss Grace Huntsman, Cottage Grove av., Jan. 2, the occasion being guest day.

The Missionary society of Conference Memorial United Brethren church met Friday afternoon with Mrs. W. E. Kaylor, 242 E. Pennsylvania av. The occasion was that of the regular quarterly business meeting followed by devotion in charge of Mrs. D. O. Miller. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in sewing carpet rags for the society. During a general social hour light refreshments were served. Mrs. L. D. Shirk, S. Rush st., will entertain the society Jan. 8.

The Brotherhood of the First Evangelical church held its regular monthly meeting Friday evening at the home of Gustav Hoffman, 1901 S. Carroll st. During the business meeting officers were elected for the next six months as follows: G. Long, president; Fred W. Scholtz, vice president; Frank J. Schulz, secretary; H. E. Purucker, treasurer; and Elmer Nimtz, pianist. After the business session a social hour was enjoyed during which refreshments were served. The Brotherhood will meet Jan. 1 with George Long, 611 Pennsylvania av.

The Women's Missionary circle of the First Baptist church met Friday afternoon with Mrs. Charles A. Decker, 211 W. Wayne st. The program consisted first of an excellent talk by Mrs. I. J. Miller whose topic was "The Social Aspects of Home Missions the City's Peril," comprehensive reports of the "Good Will" work by Miss Veve Harrison and Mrs. W. H. Shonts, musical solos by Mrs. O. P. Duncan and a vocal duet by Mrs. Roscoe Hart and Miss Florence Butzback. A social hour followed during which refreshments were served. The society will meet Jan. 8 with Mrs. W. L. Kizer, W. Washington av.

The Women's Missionary society of the Westminster Presbyterian church was entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. W. P. Harman, Forest av. Mrs. A. S. Koss and Mrs. Lloyd Greenan were the assisting hostesses. Topics for discussion during the afternoon were "Mountaineers," by Mrs. L. C. Whitcomb, and "Presbyterian Mission Work in Moslem Land," Mrs. Daniel Rich. Mrs. Frank Ireland led in the devotions. After the program a social hour was enjoyed during which refreshments were served to about 25 guests. Mrs. Charles Grimm, Leland av., will entertain the society Jan. 8.

WOMAN IS BURNED WHILE PREPARING BREAKFAST

Mrs. Peter Schaubrock, 622 Pennsylvania av., sustained burns Friday morning when flames from a gas stove ignited her clothing. Mrs. Schaubrock was preparing breakfast and during the course of her work leaned over the stove. One of the flames caught her sleeve and started spreading over her body. Fortunately her husband just came into the kitchen at that moment and with a rare presence of mind snatched up a table cloth and wrapped her wife in it. The flames were smothered immediately and the woman was none the worse except for a few burns about her wrist.

ACKERMANN IS BOOMED FOR DEMOCRATIC MAYOR

Successful Fall Campaign Places County Chairman in Line For City Executive.

Following on the heels of the splendid management of the recent campaign by County Chairman Rudolph Ackermann, an aggregation of democrats meeting at the Oliver hotel, Friday afternoon, planned to launch a boom for him as the democratic candidate for mayor in 1917. This, at least, is the report on the street and democrats present at the meeting have declined to deny it. Ackermann refused last night to make any comment on the report except to say that he knew nothing about it.

The recent campaign, due to its splendid success, its cleanliness, and the magnificent victory, started an almost immediate talk of the county chairman as in line for the next democratic mayoralty nomination, and the truth of the street talk is more than probable. "That is a good way off," said Ackermann when asked about the matter last night. "Guess I will wait until the present administration has gotten in at least the first of its four years, before accepting the nomination."
